Dear stakeholder community,

Welcome to the SCOOP4C project!

We will work hard in order to explore the implementation of the once-only principle on a cross-border European level for citizens and hope to soon be able to welcome you to our stakeholder community.

In order to discuss the once-only principle to its fullest extent and how it can make lives for citizens easier when interacting with public administrations, we welcome your comments and ideas in our community forum.

If you have any questions, concerns, feedback for us - please let us know!

See you soon,

The SCOOP4C project team
